

Report Types – DEFERRED COMP

Note: Information in this section will help you select the option for the first step of creating payroll on the Payroll Reporting screen:

Record Type:

Regular: Select this option to report current contributions for the pay period indicated

Adjustment: Select this option when reporting any contributions not previously reported on a regular report